Professor Margot Young

EXAM PASSWORD: LYnVP6
RESUME CODE: ABB000

TOTAL MARKS: 100

(Starting at 8:50 AM PST) PREPARATION TIME ALLOWED: 10 MINUTES

(Starting at 9:00 AM PST) WRITING (INCLUSIVE OF READING) TIME ALLOWED: 2 HOURS

8:50-9:00 AM Preparation Time (Exam writing not permitted) – This time is given to students to download/print your exam questions once the exam has been made available online on Canvas, to read the Exam Password on this exam coversheet, to enter the Exam Password for the exam in Exemplify, and to progress in Exemplify until you see the STOP SIGN, where you will WAIT until 9:00 AM. DO NOT proceed past the STOP SIGN. DO NOT begin typing your exam answers in Exemplify until 9:00 AM!

9:00 AM Exam Writing Time – At 9:00 AM, you may proceed past the STOP SIGN in Exemplify and begin typing your exam answers. Students are required to calculate and monitor their own time for writing exams. All exam answer uploads will be monitored to ensure that typing of answers only occurred during the allotted Exam Writing Time.

1. This is an open book examination, meaning that you can refer to any course materials, study materials prepared for the course, and notes from class discussions and lectures.
 2. The software does not allow you to cut and paste within your exam answer. Nor will it allow you to cut and paste from an outside file into your exam answer.
 3. You must answer TWO questions from Part I; and ONE question from Part II.

If you think you have discovered an error or potential error in a question on this exam, please make a realistic assumption, set out that assumption clearly in writing for your professor, and continue answering the question. Do not email your professor or anyone else about this while the exam is in progress.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Any exam answers that raise suspicion of breaking any restrictions outlined on this cover page may be subject to being processed through academic integrity software. Students typing exam answers before or after the allocated exam writing time may receive a grade penalty.

PLEASE READ THE CONFIDENTIALITY REGULATIONS BELOW CAREFULLY

As this exam is being written off-campus and is unsupervised, any communication whatsoever (including, but not limited to in-person, telephone, email, text, social media, etc.) concerning the contents of this examination with anyone (other than your instructor or staff of the Allard School of Law) is strictly prohibited.

In the event any information comes to your attention regarding a breach of these regulations (by others, or inadvertently by you), please immediately contact Student Academic Services (studentservices@allard.ubc.ca) and make full disclosure.

A breach of these regulations may constitute student misconduct, and you may be subject to penalty or discipline under UBC's Academic Misconduct policies.

What Do I Do If:

- I cannot access the exam questions on Canvas.

If you experience technical difficulties accessing the exam questions on Canvas, email studentservices@allard.ubc.ca and the exam questions will be emailed to you. Please provide your phone number when emailing Student Services.

- I'm experiencing technical difficulties DURING THE WRITING of the exam.

If you experience technical difficulties with Exemplify at the very beginning or during an exam, you may attempt to solve your problem/reboot your computer BY YOURSELF.

You are STRONGLY encouraged to spend NO MORE THAN 5 minutes attempting to do so. You will NOT BE GIVEN ANY EXTRA TIME to complete the exam.

If your attempt to solve the problem is unsuccessful, or if you choose not to make such an attempt, you MUST immediately begin hand-writing your exam answers with pen on lined paper. You may NOT type your exam answer in word-processing software.

When you have finished writing the exam, you must upload the exam answers that you completed in Exemplify (if you are prompted for a Resume Code, it is on the coversheet of the exam questions). Email Bernie Flinn, flinn@allard.ubc.ca, for help with this. Please provide your phone number in the email. Bernie or another IT Support staff person will then help you to upload any answers that you typed in Exemplify.

You must also upload to Canvas your hand-written exam answers into the “Exam Answer File Upload (Word Processor or Hand-written ONLY)” folder. Scan or take a picture of each page (.jpg) of your exam and put them into one folder to upload.

Your answer file should be named, and the coversheet of your answers should be titled with:
Your Exam Code, Course Number, Name of Course, and Instructor Name

i.e., 9999 LAW 100.001 Law of Exam Taking - Galileo

- I’m experiencing technical difficulties EXITING and UPLOADING the exam

If you experience any difficulty exiting and uploading your Exemplify exam answers, you must wait until the allocated time period specified on the coversheet of the exam has ended, then email Bernie Flinn, flinn@allard.ubc.ca, and he or another IT Support staff person will help you to upload your Exemplify exam file. Please provide your phone number in the email.

If you have approved accommodations to type your answers using Word Processing Software, and experience difficulties uploading your exam answer file to Canvas, email your exam answer file to studentservices@ubc.ca.

- I fall ill in the middle of an exam, or am otherwise interrupted such that I’ve unable to continue writing my exam

Please stop writing, note the time that you stopped, and email studentservices@allard.ubc.ca immediately to notify them and discuss options. Please provide your phone number when emailing student services.

Part I: Short Answer Questions

Please answer TWO question only. That is, you have a choice between the questions set out below. Do NOT answer more than two. If you, by mistake, answer more than two only the first two answered will be read.

Each question is worth 25 marks and has a recommended time of 30 minutes.

Marks25 Question 1

In its “Principles of Reconciliation”, the Truth and Reconciliation Commission stated that:

“The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples is the framework for reconciliation at all levels and across all sectors of Canadian society.”

Describe the ways UNDRIP can act as the framework for reconciliation in Canada with specific reference to provisions you think are critical to advancing this objective.

Recommended Time: 30 minutes

25 Question 2

The ongoing disproportionate representation of Indigenous peoples in the child welfare and criminal legal systems is a dual crisis that has frequently been described as a continuation of the Residential School System. Discuss.

Recommended Time: 30 minutes

25 Question 3

In Chapter 1 of its final report, the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls identified four pathways that maintain colonial violence. The first pathway is described as historical, multigenerational, and intergenerational trauma. Discuss three colonial processes that have given rise to this trauma and the extent to which redress, if any, is being achieved.

Recommended Time: 30 minutes

Marks25 Question 4

Indigenous peoples in Canada have been and continue to be over- and under-policed in multiple ways. With reference to specific examples from course materials and guest lectures, discuss the ways in which Indigenous peoples are over- and under-policed. In what ways can efforts to reform policing of Indigenous peoples combat over- and under-policing?

Recommended Time: 30 minutes

Part II: Essay answer

Answer only ONE question. That is, you have a choice between the questions set out below. Do NOT answer more than ONE.

Marks50 Question 5

Reflect how the reading with which we ended the course, “Reconciliation and Ethical Lawyering: Some Thoughts on Cultural Competence” by Pooja Parmar, does or does not represent your learning process in this course. Does Parma’s linkage of cultural competence training with enhanced self-awareness capture aspects of your progress through the learning in this course? If so, how? If not, why not. Be sure to locate your answer in detailed reference to and explanation of the readings, across the topics.

Recommended Time: 60 minutes

OR

50 Question 6

In her article “Thinking about Indigenous Legal Orders”, Val Napoleon writes:

Basically, how we think about law is shaped by our experiences and history. As Indigenous peoples, much of our current understanding of law derives from our experiences with the western legal system in Canada. We know this system through its courts, legislation, and enforcement, and by its treatment of our peoples, lands, and resources. Given this, many Indigenous peoples have come to associate “law” with power, punishment, hierarchy, and bureaucracy. (p. 230)

Reflect upon this passage by considering the ways in which the colonial legal system has given rise to this perspective on Canadian law among Indigenous peoples. What counter narratives do Indigenous legal systems provide? Be sure to locate your answer in detailed reference to and explanation of the readings, across the topics.

Recommended Time: 60 minutes
