THIS EXAMINATION CONSISTS OF ONE QUESTION

QUESTION

A street preacher walking on the public street of Vancouver downtown while loudly voicing offensive and insulting messages to LGBTQI people faced many complaints from the public. Specifically, he remarked that “Jesus Christ died for the entire world so that world would be saved—that includes people in the LGBTQI community” and stressed the importance of religious freedom, opposing to the inclusion of sexual orientation and sexual identity to the provincial human rights code. In response, the Vancouver City Council voted to enact a bylaw to prohibit the use of offensive and insulting language on the public street. Asked about your opinion as a lawyer, write an analysis on its constitutionality.
